Severe Weather Outlook Monday, April 09, 2018

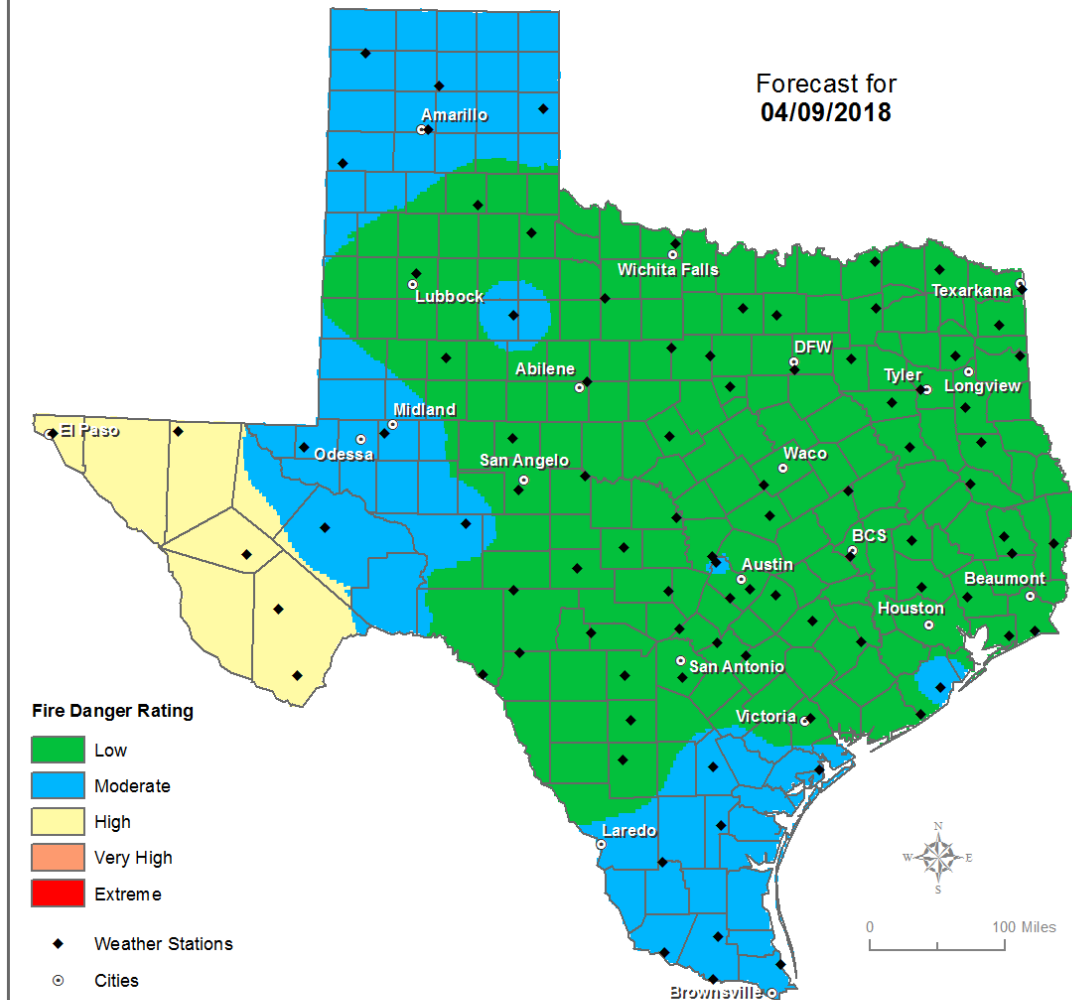

Hazardous Weather

Warming up a bit today as south winds return ushering in Gulf moisture. The increase of Gulf moisture to keep much of the day under a mostly cloudy sky and lead to a small chance of showers or even an isolated thunderstorm with best chances over the Northern Ranchlands. Marine areas can expect a favorable day of winds and seas with winds 15 knots or less and seas only 2 to 4 feet.
